

Please leave Indiana law to those of us who live in Indiana. My wife and I are happy to no longer get as many as 3 phone calls an evening trying to sell us something we do not want or do not need. It was our wish not to have these calls and it our wish that they not start again.

Thank you

Steve shupperd